To Whom It May Concern,

I'm reaching out to express my full support for Dr. Marsha Evans and her initiative, which aligns closely with the values we champion at Glossier.

Having collaborated with Dr. Evans, we have seen firsthand the powerful impact her work has in empowering individuals through personal growth and wellness. Her approach provides unique and transformative experiences, helping participants unlock their potential and achieve meaningful progress in both their personal and professional lives.

At Glossier, we believe in supporting initiatives that align with our core values of being courageous, inclusive and being devoted to the customer. Dr. Evans' work embodies these principles, and I am confident that her programs have the potential to reach even broader audiences with the right support and resources.

I understand that Dr. Evans may be seeking future grant opportunities to expand her work, and I fully endorse her efforts in this regard. Any financial backing provided to her initiative will contribute to the growth and sustainability of her programs, allowing her to create a greater impact within the communities she serves.

I am eager to continue supporting Dr. Evans and look forward to potential future collaborations with her team. Please do not hesitate to contact me for any further details regarding my endorsement of Dr. Evans and her initiative.

Sincerely,
